A wine supper and a good time after the show, for which his new made friends paid, brought out the confidential information that Stanley Ketchel was to meet Papke here yesterday, when the proposed A wine supper and a good time after mation that Stanley Ketchel was to meet Papke here yesterday, when the proposed match was to be talked over and the final details arranged. Also that Battling Nelson was to be in Salt Lake with Ketchel, and the trio would have a quiet but gay time in Salt Lake for a few in with 42 each way.

Travis and Wood each went around in 79, equalling the lowest score of the day. Douglas made the round in 80 and Hereshoff in 83.

Mason Phelps, Midlothian club, Chicago, champion of the Western Golf association, went around in 84, going out and coming in with 42 each way.

This just the round in 79. suited Mr. Papke, sometimes, and Mr. Mc-Fadden at others, and The Herald sport-ing department was not overlooked on a good thing. It was Papke with The Herald man, but when it came to talking fight, records and his recent encounter with Ketchel, the smooth gentleman remembered he had an important engage-ment and, as he would be in town for Brigham at 8 and 10:30 p. m. several days, he would talk about these things later. A rush wire to San Francisco brought back the word that Papke was still on the coast. The smooth gentleman probably saw his game was up and has disappeared. He was a good imitation and any person holding a photo of the real Papke in his hand and looking at this individual would fall for the Of using Crescent Creamery Butter.

On Monday night a friend who was anxious to show Papke a good time bought a box at the Orpheum, and it was soon made known all over the house that Billy Papke was present. He was about to be introduced from the stage as Papke, but, not having his dress suit on, the smooth gentleman declined.

Garden City, L. I., Sept. 14.—The first pair in the amateur gold tournament, Smith and Whitney, finished with 87 each. H. C. Fownes of Pittsburg turned in a card of 86; Jerome D. Travers went around in 80, going out in 42 and coming in with four strokes less.

H. B. McFarland of Philadelphia went around in 83, Addison Stillwell of Chicago, who has shown up strong, finished in 98.

Of course a man with Papke's reputation could not make a success of his splurge in a city like Scheme and coming in with 42 each way.

Archie M. Reid of St. Andrews had 81, one stroke behind Travers. Kenneth Edwards, Midlothian club, Chicago, turned in Findlay S. Douglas, Nassau, tied the champion's score of 80.
